Discussion on Infrastructure Priorities for 2017

Wednesday, February 1, 2017

3:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Capitol Visitor Center

Room SVC 203-02

Broadband infrastructure is critical to the viability of our 21st century economy and the future of American ingenuity and entrepreneurship. It has become the very foundation for invention and a necessary backbone that communities across the country need to succeed. A panel of experts will discuss broadband infrastructure priorities for 2017.

Moderator:

Robert Atkinson, President, Information Technology and Innovation Foundation

Panelists:

Meredith Baker, President, CTIA, The Wireless Association

Michael Powell, President and CEO, NCTA, The Internet & Television Association

Jonathan Spalter, President and CEO, US Telecom

Senate and House Broadband Caucus Co-Chairs will also make brief remarks
